

Opinion poll from the BM@CG Week 2021. All questions were asked with the specific scope “for CG Week 2022 in Berlin”.

Q1: What is your present feeling about allowing remote audience at CG Week?

I am in favor of admitting a remote audience, subject to the described aspects.	43
I can live with a remote audience, provided the regular feel remains unaffected.	26
I am against admitting a remote audience.	3
I am in favor of admitting a remote audience, but have additional suggestions or concerns.	1

Q2: Being a speaker at CG Week ...

If I had the chance to give a SoCG talk, I would definitely want to give it in person, with a remote option as backup in case of an emergency.	66
If I had the chance to give a SoCG talk, I would prefer to give it remotely.	7

Q3: Others speaking at CG Week ...

I am in favor of admitting remote speakers, no questions asked.	29
I am in favor of admitting a limited number of remote speakers, in addition to those who establish a justifiable reason.	18
I think remote speakers should have to establish a justifiable reason.	14
I am against allowing remote speakers.	3
I have no strong opinion at this time.	9